

SUMMER CAMP SESSIONS 2019

Led by experienced writer and teacher Beth Harrison, Ph.D.

All Sessions located in Redwood City at the Unitarian Universalist Fellowship (UUFRC), 2124 Brewster Ave.

Camp is open to 8-14 year olds; participants are grouped with others in the same age and experience. Each day's workshop includes writing instruction, writing games, time to write and revise and a recess (snack provided). All campers write and publish their own hardcopy book.

Session 1: July 8-12 Pet Parade (full day 9 am - 3 pm)

Create a story about your favorite pet or other animal. Try different kinds of poems from free verse to odes. Meet dogs from a local shelter and read your finished book to them. Supervised lunch hour included—campers bring their own lunch.

Session 2: July 15-19 Around the World in 80 Days (morning 9 am - noon)

Become an armchair traveler to exotic locations following the path of Jules Verne's heroes Phileas Fogg and Passepartout. Create your own adventure episode or write a travel story of your own choosing. Experiment with poetic forms including list poems and limericks.

Session 3: July 22-26 Pet Parade (morning 9 am – noon)

See Session 1 above. Half day session—lunch not included.

Session 4: July 22-26 Around the World in 80 Days (afternoon 1 pm – 4 pm)

See Session 2 above.

Why Peninsula Young Writers?

- Camp Director teaches every session with trained staff to ensure individual attention.
- Tailored instruction for beginners and more experienced writers.
- 15th year and over one-third of participants each year are returning campers!
- Flexible sessions, both half and full day. Themed curriculum creates focus and fun.
- Each session includes a balance of writing instruction, group writing games and practice, a snack, and recess.
- Campers design and publish their own hardcopy book and share their writing in a "Literary Salon" at the end of each session.
- Full financial scholarships are available for campers who qualify.
